Biographical sketch:
Abraham Bowman (1768-1860) was born on the Mohawk River NY. He came to Fort Niagara with his mother in 1776 and enlisted in Butler's Rangers as a fifer in 1777. He must have transferred in 1780 to the Kings Royal Regiment of New York until the end of the war as a musician. After the war, Abraham settled with his father at the Whirlpool, moving later to St. Catharine's where he died. He served as a captain in the War of 1812 fighting at Lundy's Lane, Chippewa, and Queenston Heights where he was wounded. He received 300 acres plus 200 for his wife (the daughter of a Loyalist) and a town lot in Newark. He married at least twice, and possibly a third time. With his second wife Mary Jones (1770-1854) he had a son, Joseph. Joseph Bowman (1823-1895) came to Dundas in 1875 and owned a lumber mill with his partner Wm. Casey. Bowman, along with his wife Sarah Smith (1829-1894) and family, moved to Dundas in 1888. In 1890 he was a licensed inspector and his son Joseph Henry Bowman carried on the lumber mill. Additionally, Joseph Bowman was a Justice of the Peace for many years. Joseph Henry Bowman (1861-1954) was the head of Bowman Lumber Company. The business first started in 1865 at the south east corner of King and Market Street and was owned by James Mercer and William Casey. In 1877 the mill was operated by Joseph Bowman and S. Jull. In 1878 Wm. Casey eventually bought Jull's interest and Bowman and Casey moved to a new planing mill on the north side of King Street opposite John Street. This mill burned down in 1882 but was rebuilt and Wm. Casey moved to Hamilton in 1884. Thereafter it was known as the Bowman Lumber Company. Joseph Henry Bowman succeeded his father about 1890 and sold it to Snetsinger in 1941. Joseph Henry Bowman's children with his first wife Clara N. Behimer were Sarah McMahon Bowman and Frederick Bowman. Sarah married James J. Grafton (1857-1939), who was president of the Dundas Historical Society Museum for many years and ran the Grafton and Co. operation after her husband's death in 1939. Dr. Frederick Bowman (1885-1954) was a Hamilton doctor who served in the U.S. Medical Corps in World War I.
